PAUSE WHEN AGITATED

“As we go through the day we pause when agitated or doubtful and ask for the right thought or action”. The Big Book, page 87. Also, in reading Step 10 in the 12 & 12 one of the items that is talked about is pausing when agitated and asking “Thy will, not mine, be done”. Before I got sober and began applying the program of AA into my life, I was quick to respond to a perceived slight – especially in dealing with those closest to me. Sometime the response would be a soft passive-aggressive dig, or at times it would be loud and volatile. I have learned that the better response is to pause, and when I pause, I pray for god’s will that the right response comes out. I’ve also learned that sometimes the best response is no response at all. When I am willing to pause and ask for guidance it helps me to maintain that level of peace and serenity I seek.
