The AA Triangle

The trifecta of Unity, Service and recovery - the three sides of the AA triangle – have been an integral part of my recovery in AA. I have heard that it said that it is a 3-legged stool, if one leg goes out - the whole stool collapses. That is why I have tried to make these three things a major part of my journey in AA. Unity within the meetings, the fellowship among members, and the service I am encouraged to perform are all very important to my recovery and major steps in protection from that first drink. By continuing this path – one day at a time – the promises of the AA program have come true. If I let one leg of that stool fall – I put my recovery and my life, at risk. Today I choose not to do that.
