TRUSTING THE PROCESS

Many of us have come in to AA with trust issues, whether it be with a spouse, a partner, family or society as a whole. It has been said that faith is not belief without proof but rather trust without reservation. Learning to accept and trust that the program of AA would work was difficult but I observed and listened to those on the path before me and learned that if it worked for them, it could work for me. Trusting the process upon which we build our new lives is a key to growth and healing. As one heals, one is able to trust again. Love grows when trust is present.
